Fun Tipples

'An ever changing selection of diverse and interesting wines that we love – go on – treat yourself!'

Regieterre Zibibbo Musita 2018

(Sicily/Italy) (VF) 24.95

A family run estate for 5 generations.

Zibibbo is the Sicilian name for Muscat of Alexandria.

This dry version of the grape is very aromatic and perfumed with blossom and honeysuckle on the nose.

The palate is floral with ripe peach, nectarine and a subtle mango note on the finish.

Appassimento Edizione Oro, Casa Botter

(Veneto/Italy) (VF) 23.95

The company was born in 1928 and now is run by the 3rd generation of the Botter family.

A Merlot/Primitivo blend. Late harvested, super ripe grapes are selected for the Appassimento, a rich and raisiny dry red that is not unlike a ripasso Valpolicella in style.

Heady notes of black fruits, spice and chocolate
